

OSSTF/FEESO Central Bargaining Update

OSSTF/FEESO has confirmed January 15 and 16 as the dates for the interest arbitration hearing to determine an appropriate remedy for wages lost under Bill 124. Provincial Office is focused on putting together the strongest possible arguments and supporting materials to secure a fair remedy for the wages that were unjustly taken from OSSTF/FEESO Members under the Ford government's unconstitutional bill.

A decision on the remedy for Bill 124 will be issued following the January arbitration dates, and in advance of the hearing dates for the central bargaining interest arbitration. Additional information about the central bargaining interest arbitration dates will be shared with the Membership shortly.

OSSTF/FEESO also remains committed to securing a fair remedy for university sector and school board transportation consortia Members for wages unfairly lost under Bill 124. We continue to wait for the Court of Appeal for Ontario's ruling on Bill 124, and we will share the court's decision as soon as it is released.
