Procedure 6 HARASSMENT AND BULLYING RESOLUTION AND COMPLAINT PROCEDURE (A. 2008)

6.1

A member who believes s/he has been the target of harassment or discrimination at an OSSTF District 7 TBU sponsored event or meeting is encouraged to take immediate action to ensure this behaviour is stopped. As a first step, the member should make it clear to the perpetrator that s/he finds the behaviour offensive, and ask that it be stopped. This can be done personally, either in writing or verbally, or with the assistance of a third party. If the behaviour recurs or persists, or if the member does not feel safe in approaching the perpetrator directly, s/he should speak with one of the designated anti-harassment officers and ask him/her to act. The anti-harassment officer will investigate the complaint thoroughly, including separately interviewing the parties involved and any witnesses, with a view to resolving the problem informally. The investigation shall be handled confidentially; however, all complaints will be reported by the anti-harassment officer to the Bargaining Unit President. If the complaint cannot be resolved informally, the complainant will be asked to put the complaint and all relevant information in writing. If the complainant chooses to provide such a written complaint, it will be submitted to the Bargaining Unit President for action and it shall be the joint responsibility of the Bargaining Unit President and the Field Secretary assigned to the OSSTF District 7 TBU to conduct an investigation, determine if the behaviour falls under the definition of harassment, and decide on appropriate remedial action. The parties involved will receive a written report stating the findings and any action taken. Resolutions may include but are not limited to apologies, mediation, warnings, temporarily limiting access, or removal/exclusion from OSSTF District 7 TBU events or meetings. Decisions may be reviewed by the TBU Council in Executive session on the request of a member. The Bargaining Unit President shall keep a confidential file of all records and reports related to the investigation of written complaints for a period of five years. None of the above restricts a member's right to file a complaint with the Ontario Human Rights Commission or make a complaint to police. (A. 2023)

PART 4: POLICIES

Policy 1 ANTI-HARASSMENT AND ANTI-BULLYING POLICY (Renewed 2020)

A member of the OSSTF District 7 TBU has the right to a workplace and union environment free from harassment and bullying. Harassment and discrimination are not joking matters. They have a destructive effect on the workplace environment, individual well-being, and union solidarity. Such actions are not only destructive; they can be illegal. Harassment and discrimination can take many forms and may be verbal, physical, or psychological. They can involve a wide range of actions including comments, gestures or looks, pictures, messages, touching, or more aggressive actions. These acts may be indirect or overt; they may be isolated or repeated. However, acts of harassment and discrimination are always degrading, unwelcome, and coercive. They are always unacceptable. As members of the OSSTF District 7 TBU, our goal must be to protect human rights, to promote mutual respect and trust, and to foster inclusion. We cannot condone or tolerate intimidating, demeaning, hostile, and aggressive behaviour against another member. We cannot condone these behaviours when we witness them. As OSSTF District 7 TBU members, we must speak out against this conduct, and stand together to protect human rights. We must take action. The OSSTF District 7 TBU is committed to strengthening member solidarity, and, in addition to representing members' interests in the workplace, takes seriously its own responsibility to ensure that members are treated with respect and dignity at all OSSTF District 7 TBU sponsored events and meetings. Any member who feels targeted by harassment or discrimination must be able to speak up and know their concerns will be responded to immediately in accordance with the OSSTF District 7 TBU Harassment and Bullying Resolution and Complaint Procedure, as approved by the TBU.

Policy 2 ENVIRONMENTAL CONSCIENTIOUSNESS (A.2021)

2.1 The TBU will take as many measures as practically possible to become a more environmentally-conscious union, such as integrating and/or employing the recommendations listed in "Small Steps to a Greener Union."
